Letter to Households for Community Eligibility Provision Schools/Districts

Dear Parent or Guardian:

We are pleased to inform you that Orange Center School District will be implementing a new option available to schools participating in the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs and the Child and Adult Care Food Program, called the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) for 2022-2023 School Year.

Schools that participate in the CEP are able to provide healthy breakfasts, lunches and suppers each day at no charge for all students enrolled in that CEP school during the 2022-2023 School Year.

If we can be of any further assistance, please contact us at (559) 237-0437.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Terry Hirschfield
Superintendent

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at 800-877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form (AD-3027), found online at http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call 866-632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:
